- (a) At any time after the first Completion Date, the Seller undertakes to indemnify and keep each Purchaser, its Affiliates and their respective partners, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, representatives and agents (collectively, the "Purchaser Indemnified Persons") indemnified against all Losses which they suffer or incur from any breach of, non-fulfilment of, or failure to perform, any of the covenants, statements, obligations, representations and warranties of the Seller under this Agreement.
- (b) The rights and remedies of the Purchaser Indemnified Persons or the Seller in respect of any breach of this Agreement, including, without limitation, a breach of any of the Seller's Warranties, shall not be affected by any act or happening which otherwise might have affected such rights and remedies, except by a specific written waiver by such Purchaser Indemnified Persons or the Seller (as the case may be).
- (c) For the purpose of seeking indemnification under this Clause 6.1, a Purchaser Indemnified Person shall provide written intimation to the Seller containing a summary of the matter giving rise to the claim as soon as may be reasonably possible. Any delay or failure of a Purchaser Indemnified Person to so notify the Seller shall not relieve the Seller of his indemnification obligations under this Agreement unless (and only to the extent that) the Seller's ability to contest a Third Party claim is prejudiced by such delay or failure to notify. If the matter giving rise to the indemnity claim relates to a Third Party claim against a Purchaser Indemnified Person:
 - (i) the Seller shall promptly, and in any event no later than 10 (ten) Business Days after receipt of the indemnity claim from the Purchaser Indemnified Person, inform the Purchaser, in writing, whether he will make payment of all amounts claimed by the Third Party or contest the Third Party claim;

- (ii) if the Seller elects to contest the Third Party claim, the process set out in Clause 6.2(a) shall apply to the Seller's defense of the Third Party claim, whereupon the Seller shall be obligated to pay all amounts payable to the Third Party as may be directed by the appropriate judicial body adjudicating such contestation;
- (iii) if the Seller elects not to contest the Third Party claim, or having elected to contest the Third Party claim, does not contest the Third Party claim:

 - (B) the Purchaser Indemnified Persons shall be entitled to assume control of the defense of the Third Party claim in accordance with the principles set out in Clause 6.2(c).
- (d) The Seller shall not, except with the prior written consent of the Purchaser Indemnified Person, consent to the entry of any judgement or enter into any settlement.
- (e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement but subject to Clause 6.4, the Seller shall not have any liabilities pursuant to this Clause 6.1 for a breach of the representations and warranties set out in Clauses 5.1.2(d), 5.1.4(a), 5.1.4(b) if a claim for indemnity for such a breach is not issued to the Seller on or prior to the expiry of a period of 7 (seven) years from the date of Completion ("Indemnity Applicable Claim Period"). The indemnification obligation under this Clause 6.1 in relation to any such claim made prior to the expiration of the Indemnity Applicable Claim Period shall continue until the relevant proceeding has been finally resolved, which may be subsequent to the expiry of the Indemnity Applicable Claim Period.  - (i) the Purchaser shall cooperate with the Seller in the process of responding to or contesting the Third Party Notice and provide all such information as may be reasonably requested by the Seller in this regard and the Company and the Purchaser shall execute necessary authorisations in favour of the Seller on a case by case basis in this regard;
 - (ii) the Seller shall keep the Purchaser informed of all matters pertaining to such action, and shall promptly provide the Purchaser with copies of all submissions, filings, correspondence and documents relating to the action (to the extent available with the Seller), along with minutes of all formal legal proceedings with appropriate judicial body adjudicating such contestation;

- (iii) the Purchaser Indemnified Persons shall not make any admission of liability, agreement, settlement or compromise in relation to such Third Party Notice or Third Party claim without the prior written consent of the Seller; and
 - (iv) the Seller shall not submit any correspondence, submissions, amendments or documents pertaining to Third Party Notice or proceedings related thereto, or consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement, in each case which has the effect of admitting any liability of the Purchaser Indemnified Persons, or consent to any positions having an adverse impact on the Purchaser Indemnified Persons or make any representations or warranties on behalf of any of the Purchaser Indemnified Persons, in each case without the prior written approval of the Purchaser; provided that if the Purchaser, within a reasonable period and in any case prior to 3 (three) Business days for the deadline to the payment, refuses to grant its approval to any final settlement that is valid and binding under Applicable Law and which would, upon acceptance, result in no further liability for the Purchaser Indemnified Persons in the relevant proceedings, then the liability of the Seller, in respect of such Third Party Notice or proceedings (including with respect to any further costs and expenses in relation to such Third Party Notice or proceedings), shall not, in any manner, exceed the amount that was payable under such proposed settlement.
- (b) Subject to 6.3, if any amounts (or other financial comforts, whether in the nature of a bank guarantee or any other undertaking) are required to be deposited with, or paid to, a Governmental Authority (whether as a condition to any appeal or contest of the Third Party Notice or any proceeding related thereto, or on account of any failure to obtain a favourable order, or on account of any abandonment of the defense of such Third Party Notice or any proceeding or appeal related thereto, or any other reason), the Seller shall make payment of the amount due and payable (to the extent as may be revised in any Injunctive Order) on or before at least 2 (two) Business Days prior to the due date of such payment, as may be extended or reduced by any Injunctive Order.
- (c) In the event the Seller fails to either (i) assume control of the process of responding to or contesting the Third Party Notice, or (ii) pay the requisite amounts to the relevant Governmental Authority, the Purchaser may, without prejudice to the indemnity and payment obligations of the Seller hereunder, assume control of the process of responding to or contesting the Third Party Notice through counsels and advisors selected by the Purchaser provided that:
 - (i) the Seller shall cooperate with the Purchaser in the process of responding to or contesting the Third Party Notice and provide all such information as may be reasonably requested by the Purchaser and/or any appropriate judicial body adjudicating such contestation in this regard;
 - (ii) the Purchaser Indemnified Persons shall not make any admission of liability, settlement or compromise in relation to such Third Party Notice or Third Party claim without the prior written consent of the Seller (which consent may not be withheld unreasonably), provided that: (A) if the Seller withholds consent to any admission of liability, settlement or compromise, he shall not be entitled to require prosecution of an appeal or contest such an appeal pursuant to Clause 6.2(c)(v), and (B) nothing in this Clause 6.2(c)(ii) will prevent a Purchaser Indemnified Person from admitting facts simpliciter, or require the Seller's consent for the admission of such facts simpliciter: (1) related to the sale and purchase of the Sale Shares that do not amount to an admission of the liability in respect of a claim, or (2) where failure to admit such facts simpliciter would amount to perjury;
 - (iii) all costs and expenses incurred by the Purchaser in this regard shall be borne solely by the Seller, and the Seller shall either (A) reimburse the Purchaser for such costs and expenses within 10 (ten) Business Days of a written claim for reimbursement by the Purchaser (which written claim shall also include relevant supporting documents evidencing the costs incurred by the Purchaser), or (B) if required by the Purchaser, be responsible for the payment of such costs and expenses directly to legal counsels and advisors of the Purchaser, as permissible under Applicable Law;

- (iv) if in the course of such contest of the Third Party Notice by the Purchaser any amounts (or other financial comforts, whether in the nature of a bank guarantee or any other undertaking) are required to be deposited with, or paid to, a Governmental Authority (whether as a condition to any appeal or contest of the Third Party Notice or any proceeding related thereto, or on account of any failure to obtain a favourable order, or any other reason), the Purchaser shall notify the Seller of the same and the Seller shall make payment of the amount due in accordance with Clause 6.2(b); and
- (v) upon receipt of any order in connection with proceedings, Purchaser shall notify the Seller of such order, along with the copy of such order as soon as reasonably practicable and no later than 4 (four) Business Days from receipt of such order by the Purchaser or within 10 (ten) Business Days prior to the deadline to file an appeal against such order. Upon receipt of such notice from the Purchaser, the Seller shall have the right to decide if the Purchaser should file an appeal against such order (which decision shall be binding on Purchaser), provided the decision is communicated to the Purchaser within 7 (seven) Business Days of communication from the Purchaser to the Seller. In such event, the Seller shall prosecute such appeal, and provisions of Clause 6.2(a) shall apply to such appeal commencing on the date on which the Seller takes control of the proceedings, and such appeal shall be treated as proceedings for the purpose of that clause. Any failure to deliver the order within the period mentioned in the first sentence of this paragraph shall not relieve the Seller of his indemnification obligations under this Agreement unless (and only to the extent that) the Seller's ability to contest the claim / appeal is materially prejudiced by such delay or failure to notify.

6.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement but subject to Clause 6.4 below, the Parties hereby agree that Seller's liability (including towards the indemnity obligations under this Agreement) towards any Purchaser shall not exceed 100% (one hundred percent) of the portion of the Consideration received from such Purchaser.

6.4 Nothing in this Agreement shall limit or exclude liability for fraud.

6.5 A Purchaser shall not be entitled to make more than one claim against the Seller in respect of a Loss, arising out of the same cause of action. Further, if a Purchaser has received damages or otherwise obtained reimbursement or restitution, which covers a part or the entire amount of its Loss (whether from a Third Party or an insurer), it shall not make a claim against the Seller for such portion of the Loss.

6.6 The Seller shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever for any indirect, remote or consequential damages or any loss of revenue, income or profits, punitive, speculative or special damages, or loss of business reputation or opportunity.

7. FURTHER ASSURANCES
