- (c) For the purpose of seeking indemnification under this Clause 6.1, a Purchaser Indemnified Person shall provide written intimation to the Seller containing a summary of the matter giving rise to the claim as soon as may be reasonably possible. Any delay or failure of a Purchaser Indemnified Person to so notify the Seller shall not relieve the Seller of its indemnification obligations under this Agreement unless (and only to the extent that) the Seller's ability to contest a third party claim is prejudiced by such delay or failure to notify. If the matter giving rise to the indemnity claim relates to a third party claim against a Purchaser Indemnified Person:
 - (i) the Seller shall promptly, and in any event no later than 10 (ten) Business Days after receipt of the indemnity claim from the Purchaser Indemnified Person, inform the Purchaser, in writing, whether it will make payment of all amounts claimed by the third party or contest the third party claim;

 - (C) the Seller shall keep the Purchaser informed of all matters pertaining to such action, and shall promptly provide the Purchaser with copies of all submissions, filings, correspondence and documents relating to the action (to the extent available with the Seller);
 - (D) the Purchaser Indemnified Persons shall not make any admission of liability, agreement, settlement or compromise in relation to such notice or claim without the prior written consent of the Seller; and
 - (E) the Seller shall not submit any correspondence, submissions, amendments or documents pertaining to third-party claims or any proceedings arising in relation thereto or consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement, in each case which has the effect of admitting any liability of the Purchaser Indemnified Persons or make any representations or warranties on behalf of any of the Purchaser Indemnified Persons, in each case without the prior written approval of the Purchaser.
- (iii) if the Seller elects not to contest the third party claim, or having elected to contest the third party claim, does not contest the third party claim:
- (A) the Seller shall: (1) pay the entire amount claimed by the third party to the Purchaser or the third party (at the Purchaser's election) no later than the date on which the third party claim is due and payable; and (2) pay any costs and expenses of the Purchaser Indemnified Party within the timelines specified in this Clause 6.1(c)(iii); and
 - (B) the Purchaser Indemnified Persons shall be entitled to assume control of the defense of the third party claim consistent with the principles set out below:
 - (1) in the event the Seller fails to either: (x) assume control of the process of responding to or contesting the third-party claim notice; or (y) pay the requisite amounts to the relevant third-party and/or the Purchaser, the Purchaser may, without prejudice to the indemnity and payment obligations of the Seller hereunder, assume control of the process of responding to or contesting the claim notice received from third-parties, through counsels and advisors selected by the Purchaser;
 - (2) the Seller shall cooperate with the Purchaser in the process of responding to or contesting the third-party claim notice and provide all such information as may be reasonably requested by the Purchaser in this regard;

 - (4) all costs and expenses incurred by the Purchaser in this regard shall be borne solely by the Seller, and the Seller shall either:
(x) reimburse the Purchaser for such costs and expenses within 10 (ten) Business Days of a written claim for reimbursement by the Purchaser (which written claim shall also include relevant supporting documents evidencing the costs incurred by the Purchaser); or (y) if required by the Purchaser, be responsible for the payment of such costs and expenses directly to legal counsels and advisors of the Purchaser, as permissible under Applicable Law; provided that, any payment hereunder shall be subject to the overall indemnity limit under Clause 6.2;
 - (5) if in the course of such contest of the third-party claim by the Purchaser, any amounts (or other financial comforts, whether in the nature of a bank guarantee or any other undertaking) are required to be deposited with, or paid to, the third-party (whether as a condition to any appeal or contest of the claim notice or any other reason), the Purchaser shall notify the Seller of the same and the Seller shall make payment of the amount due; and
 - (6) upon receipt of any order/judgement from a court of competent authority in connection with the third-party claim proceedings, the Purchaser shall notify the Seller of such order/judgement along with the copy of order/judgement as soon as reasonably practicable and no later than 7 (Seven) Business Days from receipt of such order by the Purchaser or within 10 (Ten) Business Days prior to the deadline to file an appeal against such order. Upon receipt of such notice from the Purchaser, the Seller shall have the right to decide if the Purchaser should file an appeal against such order/judgement (which decision shall be binding on Purchaser), provided the decision is communicated to the Purchaser within 7 (Seven) Business Days of communication from the Purchaser to the Seller wherein the Seller shall have the right to prosecute such appeal. If the Seller fails to communicate its decision to the Purchaser within the aforementioned period of 7 (Seven) Business Days, the Purchaser shall have the right (but not an obligation) to file an appeal against such order/judgment at the sole discretion of the Purchaser. This right shall be in addition to, and without prejudice to any other rights the Purchaser has under this Agreement including under this Clause 6.
- (d) The Seller shall not, except with the prior written consent of the Purchaser Indemnified Person, consent to the entry of any judgement or enter into any settlement, in each case which has the effect of admitting any liability of the Purchaser Indemnified Persons.
 - (e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement but subject to Clause 6.4, the Seller shall not have any liabilities pursuant to this Clause 6.1 for a breach of the representations and warranties set out in Clauses 5.1.3(c) and 5.1.4 (“Tax Warranty Breach”) if a claim for indemnity for such a breach is not issued to the Seller on or prior to the expiry of a period of 7 (seven) years from the date of Completion (“Tax Indemnity Applicable Claim Period”). The indemnification obligation under this Clause 6.1 in relation to any such claim for Tax Warranty Breach made prior to the expiration of the Tax Indemnity Applicable Claim Period shall continue until the relevant proceeding has been finally resolved, which may be subsequent to the expiry of the Tax Indemnity Applicable Claim Period. For the purpose of Clause 6.1, matters shall be treated as finally resolved once there is a non-appealable order in relation to the same or where the time-limit to file the appeal has elapsed without an appeal having been filed.

- 6.2 The Seller’s liability (including towards the indemnity obligations under this Agreement) towards the Purchaser shall not exceed 100% of the Consideration received from the Purchaser provided that nothing in this Agreement shall limit or exclude liability of the Seller for its fraud in relation to the transactions contemplated under this Agreement.
- 6.3 The Purchaser shall not be entitled to make more than one claim against the Seller in respect of a Loss, arising out of the same cause of action. Further, if the Purchaser has received damages or otherwise obtained reimbursement or restitution, which covers a part or the entire amount of its Loss (whether from a third party or an insurer), it shall not make a claim against the Seller for such portion of the Loss.
- 6.4 The Seller shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever for any indirect, remote or consequential damages or any loss of revenue, income or profits, punitive, speculative or special damages, or loss of business reputation or opportunity.
- 6.5 All payments made to the Purchaser Indemnified Persons pursuant to the indemnification obligations under this Clause 6, shall be made free and clear of any applicable Tax (including withholding or deduction for any Tax) unless the Seller / Company making such payment is required to make payment of such Tax or withhold or deduct any amounts as per Applicable Law, in which case the sum payable by the Seller / Company (in respect of which such Tax, or withholding or deduction is required to be made) shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that the Purchaser Indemnified Person receives a sum, net of any Taxes, or deduction or withholding, equal to the sum which it would have received had no such Taxes, or deduction or withholding been made or required to be made.
- 6.6 If a claim for a Loss may be brought under Clause 6.2, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to make a claim of any manner whatsoever (including indemnity claims or suits for breach of contract) against the Seller in respect of such Loss, other than an indemnity claim under Clause 6.2.
